Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP

News

Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP Receives Recognition in Chambers USA 2018

May 23, 2018

Two Coughlin Midlige & Garland partners and one practice group have been recognized in Chambers USA 2018's legal directory published by Chambers and Partners.

Kevin Coughlin – Litigation: Insurance

Heidi Minuskin – Environment

The Firm's Insurance practice was recognized in the Litigation: Insurance (New Jersey) ranking as well, with editorial comments following:

"What the team is known for: Recommended for its handling of insurance coverage matters. Represents insurers and reinsurers at trial and appellate level in a wide range of disputes, from asbestos, environmental and product liability litigation to professional, D&O and E&O liability matters.

Strengths: Market sources describe the group as 'quality adversaries,' and add: 'They are very tough in court but they're business people that you can deal with to get to a resolution.'"

In addition, the following partners were recognized as "Leaders in their Field" with the below comments from peers and clients:

Kevin T. Coughlin – Litigation: Insurance (New Jersey)

"Kevin Coughlin has extensive experience in insurance and reinsurance cases. He is described by a client as 'a forceful advocate who brings about reasonable resolutions'."

Heidi S. Minuskin – Environment (New Jersey)

"Heidi Minuskin of Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP has considerable experience advising on environmental aspects of real estate and corporation transactional matters. She is also noted for her strength in insurance claims, Superfund and remediation issues."

Chambers USA rankings are based on extensive research and thousands of interviews with leading practitioners, peers and clients around the United States. Ranking criteria include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment and other qualities most valued by clients.