

Suzanne Midlige to be honored at Seton Hall's 34th Annual Red Mass Celebration

August 2, 2018

Coughlin Midlige & Garland's Managing Partner Suzanne C. Midlige, who is a 1991 law school graduate of Seton Hall University, will be recognized as an honoree at Seton Hall's 34th Annual Red Mass Celebration alongside Professor Michael P. Ambrosio, held at the beautiful Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart on Friday, September 21, 2018.

The Red Mass was named from the red robes worn by judges in the Middle Ages used in celebrating the Mass. It is "traditionally a Solemn Votive Mass of the Holy Spirit celebrated at the beginning of the judicial year to invoke God's blessing and guidance in the administration of justice." To read more about Seton Hall's 34th Annual Red Mass, please click here.