Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP

News

Chambers USA 2019 Recognizes Two Coughlin Midlige & Garland Attorneys and One Practice Group

April 25, 2019

Coughlin Midlige & Garland is proud to share that Kevin Coughlin and Heidi Minuskin, along with the Firm's Insurance practice, have been recognized in Chambers USA 2019's legal directory published by Chambers and Partners.

Kevin and Heidi were recognized with the below comments from peers and clients:

Kevin T. Coughlin – Litigation: Insurance (New Jersey)
"Kevin Coughlin concentrates on the representation of insurers in a multitude of coverage matters, including toxic tort, product and professional liability cases and commercial claims. Interviewees praise him as a 'very knowledgeable practitioner.'"

Heidi S. Minuskin – Environment (New Jersey)
"Heidi Minuskin of Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP is considered a 'smart, practical and hard-working' attorney by market sources. A commercial attorney with an expansive practice, she advises individual and corporate clients on state and federal environmental regulations, including those relating to real estate transactions. She also has expertise as a litigator."

The Firm's Insurance practice was recognized in the Litigation: Insurance (New Jersey) ranking, with editorial comments following:

What the team is known for:
"Recommended for its handling of insurance coverage matters. Represents insurers and reinsurers at trial and appellate level in a wide range of disputes, from asbestos, environmental and product liability litigation to professional, D&O and E&O liability matters."

Strengths:
"Sources say: 'They are very often involved in significant matters. They have very strong relationships with insurers.'"

"A fellow lawyer praises the team's longstanding presence in the state: 'Coughlin Midlige & Garland is a very good firm. It is an old-time New Jersey firm that has done insurance coverage work for many years.’”

Chambers USA rankings are based on extensive research and thousands of interviews with leading practitioners, peers and clients around the United States. Ranking criteria include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment and other qualities most valued by clients.