

News

Coughlin Midlige & Garland Named as an Environmental Leader by CIANJ and COMMERCE Magazine

May 3, 2019

Coughlin Midlige & Garland LLP is honored to be selected as a finalist in the first annual Commerce and Industry Association of New Jersey (CIANJ) and COMMERCE Magazine's 2019 Environmental Leadership Awards, celebrating environmental leadership in the business community.

CIANJ and COMMERCE highlighted an array of companies for their environmental leadership in recycling, pollution prevention, green building design, environmental conservation, energy conservation, community impact, manufacturing innovation, and brownfield redevelopment. The event honored "the leaders for their accomplishments and dedication" in the environmental industry.

Coughlin Midlige & Garland's Environmental attorneys are proud to serve the Environmental industry by counseling clients on the full impact of environmental law in real estate, development, corporate, and business transactions.

To learn more about Coughlin Midlige & Garland's Environmental practice, click here.